DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 251

1. Claims 19-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

The omission of the single rail from the claim language of independent claims 19-21 necessitates this rejection based on recapture. For example, see in parent application 08/558,109: paper #7 (1/21/97), in which only claims including a single rail were elected; paper #10 (5/2/97), especially paragraphs 3-5, in which arguments are made regarding the single rail of the present invention with respect to the prior art; and paper #14 (9/2/97), especially at the last 2 paragraphs of page 4, in which arguments are made regarding the advantages of the single rail and that the prior art does not teach the structure including the single rail.
